The Course overall was a pleasant experience. Lectures were very straightforward and easy to comprehend, same with the study guides. All the Quizzes were fair. Research Methods was a class I was dreading, but you made it completely not dreadful, Thank You!

Professor Donaldson is one awesome professor. He keeps the class very entertaining and quite exciting. Before any exam/ quizzes and finals he makes sure that we have time to review the material so that way every student understands the concepts which I really appreciate because not all professors do that. So far the best professor I've had since I transferred in Fall 2017. He was so eager to help his students with anything they need help me, that made me take another class with him in Spring 2018.

I really enjoyed this class. The syllabus was very accurate to what we did in class, the way the work for the paper was split up made the essay doable and not too overwhelming. Although I didn't enjoy my group it was still bearable. You also were very good at giving feedback in a timely manner.	5	Strongly Agree

I have to say I was expecting this course to be the worst class due to previous comments about Research Methods. Taking this course with Professor Donaldson made this subject interesting, and meaningful to apply to your everyday life. The overall course was very straight forward, and the process of working on a paper the entire semester made the final paper feel like a walk in the park. I really enjoyed the fact that we were able to apply our own research hypothesis, and even though we did not get the results we wanted it was a learning lesson for me. I know now what I have to do next time to improve on getting better results. Trial and error goes a long way.	5	Strongly Agree

This class was my favorite this semester. I learned so much and had the perfect amount of stress for this class. The power points and study guides were great. The exams tested us to make sure we knew what we had to know, but were not overwhelming. I liked that the paper was broken down by section so at the end of the semester we could put it together. I really appreciated your knowledge in the subject matter! you are great mentor and asset to the students and the university! i could not ask for a better professor to teach this course. i am sad you are leaving or won't be teaching anymore courses here because I would take another course of yours in a heartbeat! However, I do wish i did an individual research project because I would have learned much more. Also, did not like that one of the group members did no work on our group project and my other team members allowed it. Overall good course, still learned even though the quizzes and exams were easy.	5	Strongly Agree

If he is not available in the moment he always makes sure to offer alternatives like office hours or skype. Scott is an amazing professor and lecturer. He focuses on the important concepts without trying to confuse or trick his students into studying topics that are ultimately irrelevant. His lectures are precise and simple, with plenty of examples that relate to psychology and application in future careers and research. If there were anymore possible classes I could take with him, I definitely would. He's extremely knowledgable in his field. CSULA is lucky to have him and as a student I am fortunate to have learned from him. He truly cares about our futures and carrying on with research in the psychology field.	5	Strongly Agree

Professor Donaldson made this class easy to understand and enjoyable. I would recommend allowing students to choose whether or not they work in groups or individually for the research project. This was one of my favorite classes and feel that it really increased my knowledge of research methods.
